

The Institute for Workplace Equality (formerly The OFCCP Institute) is the thought leader in equal opportunity and affirmative action matters. The Institute's leadership role and expertise have been recognized by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and the Department of Labor (DOL), both of which requested that The Institute provide input on the regulatory reform process instituted under the Trump Administration.

The following are highlights of The Institute's accomplishments and advocacy efforts.

2019 Accomplishments

- March — OFCCP Director Leen attended The Institute's first ever Higher Education Symposium at the Georgetown University in Washington D.C. He solicited feedback from higher education community and surveys from The Institute on how the agency was doing.
 - During the Higher Education Symposium, Institute Leaders were asked to provide input on the OFCCP Academic Higher Education Technical Assistance Guidelines (TAGs).
- April — The Institute signed the Amicus Brief filed by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) and other employer groups with the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals supporting the reversal of the federal district court decision reinstating Component 2 of the EEO-1 Report.
- May — Prior to the Annual Summit, the Advisory Board of The Institute met with OFCCP Director Leen and his senior staff at the National Office in Washington, D.C.
 - At The Institute's Annual Summit in Falls Church, Virginia, Director Leen gave the keynote while OFCCP Acting Director of Enforcement Bob LaJuenesse participated as a guest speaker.
 - EEOC's Chief Data Officer Dr. Chris Haffer was also a guest speaker at the Annual Summit.

- May — The Institute Co-Chairs developed working teams with The Institute’s Faculty and Staff to respond on behalf of members to proposed changes to OFCCP’s Service and Supply Scheduling Letter and Itemized Listing, Compliance Check Letter and Section 503 Focused Review Scheduling Letter, as well as to proposed new VEVRAA Focused Review, and Construction Compliance Check Scheduling Letters.
- June — The Institute submitted three Letters of Comment on behalf of The Institute members to OFCCP covering scheduling letter proposals.
 - The first letter commented on the proposed Construction Compliance Check Scheduling Letter.
 - The second letter commented on the proposed Service and Supply Scheduling and Compliance Check letters.
 - The third letter commented on the changes to the Section 503 Focused Review Scheduling and the new VEVRAA Focused Review Scheduling Letters.
- July — In response to the request from Dr. Haffer at the May Annual Summit, The Institute provided EEOC with questions from members as well as feedback and assistance on the agency’s roll-out of EEO-1 Component 2.
- July — The Institute submitted its letter of comment to OMB on OFCCP proposed changes to its scheduling letters.
- July — 2019 ILG National Conference in Milwaukee, WI – Co-Chairs, Faculty and Contributors presented on various topics in workshops throughout the week. Co-Chairs David Cohen and Mickey Silberman both presented at plenary sessions.
- September—The Institute submitted its letter of comment on OFCCP’s regulatory proposal to add expansive new definitions to its current religious exemption, requesting additional guidance to federal contractors prior to issuing the new definitions.

The Institute hosted significant conferences and webinars in 2019:

- In Person Conferences Included:
 - March 27 – Higher Education Symposium; Washington, D.C.
 - April 30 – Fundamentals of AAPs; Washington, D.C.
 - May 1-2 – Annual Summit; Falls Church, V.A.
 - November 13-14 – Fall Compliance Conference; Phoenix, A.Z.

- Webinars providing timely updates on the most recent developments:
 - January – Rebroadcast 2018 Year-End Review and What to Expect in 2019
 - February – (Part 3) Sexual Harassment: The post-#MeToo Era for Employers
 - April – International Pay Equity
 - September – ATS Pitfalls and Disposition Code Strategies
 - October – Annual Enforcement Update
 - December – Year-end review and What to Expect in 2020

2018 Accomplishments

- March — At The Institute’s March Compliance Conference in San Francisco, the then-newly appointed OFCCP Director Ondray Harris presented with then Senior Advisor Leen attending.
 - The EEOC Regional Attorney participated as well to discuss EEOC’s #MeToo response.

- May — The Institute’s Advisory Board held its second in-person meeting.

- May — The Institute held its Annual Summit in Washington, D.C. with OFCCP Director Harris as the Keynote Speaker.

- July — 2018 ILG National Conference in Anaheim, CA – Co-Chairs, Faculty and Contributors presented on various topics in workshops throughout the week. Co-Chairs

David Fortney and Mickey Silberman presented at plenary sessions.

- August — The Institute submitted a second letter to Acting OFCCP Director Leen requesting guidance specific to Directive 2018-03 addressing religious liberty.
- October — The Institute held its Fall Compliance Conference in Denver, C.O. with Acting OFCCP Director Leen as the Keynote Speaker and with OFCCP SWARM Regional Director Melissa Speers participating.
- December — The Institute Advisory Board held its first conference call with OFCCP Director Leen and his senior management in 2018. In response to the meeting, The Institute surveyed members and other federal contractors on issues with OFCCP.
- December — Nita Beecher attended shareholder meeting on behalf of The Institute with EEOC's new CIO Dr. Chris Haffer and staff on data analytics.

The Institute hosted significant conferences and webinars in 2018:

- In Person Conferences Included:
 - March 20 – ½ Day #MeToo Program: San Francisco, C.A.
 - March 21-22 – Compliance Conference: San Francisco, C.A.
 - May 1 - Fundamentals of AAPs: Washington, D.C.
 - May 2-3 – Annual Summit: Washington, D.C.
 - October 24-25 – Fall Compliance Conference: Denver, C.O.
- Webinars providing timely updates on the most recent developments:
 - January – Rebroadcast 2017 Year-End Review and What to Expect in 2018
 - January – Pay Equity and State Pay Law Updates

- January – Sexual Harassment: What Employers Need to Know about the #MeToo Movement
 - February – The Expanding Law of Paid Leaves
 - March – Effectively Maintaining Privilege When Conducting An Internal Audit of Pay Practices or Personnel Actions
 - April – UK Gender Pay Gap Disclosures: Lessons Learned and Next Steps
 - May – The Gig Economy: The Increasing Use of Contingent or Temporary Workers and What It Means for OFCCP Compliance
 - June – The Interaction of Diversity Metrics and Affirmative Action Plans
 - July – Update on LGBTQ Laws and Litigation - Best Practices for Employers
 - September – Pay Equity and State Pay Law Updates
 - September – Directive 2018-05: The Good, The Bad, And The Ugly
 - November – Annual Enforcement Update
 - December – Year-end review and What to Expect in 2019
- Member Library Resources – Microlearning: Take 5 Videos
 - Things to consider when deciding on Functional AAPs and Establishment-based AAPs
 - Who is the “OFCCP” and what do they enforce?
 - Proactive Pay Analysis – How do I group my employees?
 - High level things to expect during an OFCCP onsite audit
 - The importance of Privilege when conducting a variety of analysis
 - Best practices for training Hiring Managers on Affirmative Action

2017 Accomplishments

The following are highlights of The Institute’s accomplishments and advocacy efforts in 2017.

- January – A White Paper providing key policy recommendations on OFCCP reforms was provided to the Trump transition team

- May – An important response was provided to The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and Department of Labor (DOL) objecting to the proposed merger of OFCCP and EEOC
 - Acting OFCCP Director Tom Dowd responded and confirmed that The Institute’s response and concerns were being considered
- May – The OFCCP Institute’s name changed to The Institute for Workplace Equality to more accurately reflect the scope of The Institute’s expanded services and focus.
- June – The Institute submitted a letter to DOL seeking clarification on the filing of the 2017 and 2018 VETS 4212 Reports
 - Acting head of VETS, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Operations Sam Shellenberger, responded in July with important clarifications
- July – 2017 ILG National Conference in San Antonio, TX – Co-Chairs, Faculty and Contributors presented on various topics in workshops throughout the week.
- August – The Institute provided additional recommendations to DOL Regulatory Reform Office
- October – The Institute sent a letter to OFCCP Acting Director Tom Dowd on Federal Contractor's Nondiscrimination Obligations with respect to LGBT discrimination and religious accommodation in light of Attorney General Sessions’ memoranda
 - In December, the OFCCP indicated that its response will be delayed to allow the new Director to review
- November – Acting OFCCP Director Dowd spoke at The Institute’s November Compliance Conference
- December – The Institute submitted comments to DOL on the Labor Department’s strategic plan and submitted The Institute’s white paper to newly named OFCCP Director Ondray T. Harris

The Institute also hosted significant conferences and webinars in 2017:

- In-person conferences included:
 - March 23 - Pay Equity Symposium: Menlo Park, C.A.
 - May 9 – Fundamentals of AAPs: Washington, D.C.
 - May 10-11 - Annual Summit: Falls Church, V.A.
 - November 15-16 – Fall Compliance Conference: Atlanta, G.A.

- Five webinars providing timely updates on the most recent developments:
 - February - What the Trump Presidency means to Federal Contractors
 - April - What is the latest on Fair Pay/Equal Pay for federal contractors and other employers?
 - June - Hot Topics so far in 2017
 - October - Annual Enforcement Webinar
 - December - Co-Chairs Year-end review and what to expect in 2018

The Institute is committed to addressing the needs of its members to ensure they have the most current information in addressing a growing range of workplace compliance matters. The Institute's approach is, and will continue to be, to ensure that our members' interests are fully presented in the development and implementation of proposed regulatory and policy initiatives.

For more information on The Institute, contact our Director, Barbara Kelly at barbara.kelly@theinstitute4workplaceequality.org or visit us at The Institute for Workplace Equality and follow The Institute on Twitter and Facebook.